The Weakley County School Board welcomes public comments during regular board meetings. Requests to address the Board in Public Comment must be received by the Board Secretary at least 24 hours prior to the Board meeting, or by 5:00PM the date before the meeting. Request for comments must pertain to a specific actionable item that is listed on the agenda. Remarks will be made during the Public Comment period as it is listed on the agenda. The acting Board Chairperson will select comments in the order in which they were received. Public comment speakers will share the 12 minutes time slot, in equal increments of time, not to exceed three (3) minutes per person. In the event that a public comment is not read in its entirety within the individual allotted time, a full copy can be made accessible to the Board. Upon the conclusion of the Public Comment portion of the meeting, Board business will resume to the next item on the agenda.

Public Comment Request form can be accessed weakleycountyschools.com/schoolboard or by calling the Board Secretary at 731-364-2247.
